Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The student has the right to cancel and obtain a refund of charges paid. Horizon University will refund 100 percent of the tuition paid, except the application fee and the registration fee, if notice of cancellation/withdrawal is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation shall occur on the date and time when the Horizon University Registrar received student's notification. To cancel enrollment or withdraw completely from Horizon University, the student can send an email or submit a "Withdrawal/Cancellation Form" to the Horizon University Registrar.

Horizon University Registrar email address: admin@huca.edu

Horizon University Address: 2040 S. Brea Canyon Rd. Suite 100, Diamond Bar, CA. 91765

REFUND POLICY

A student has the right to withdraw from a course after instruction has started and receive a pro rata refund for unused portion of the tuition and other refundable charges if the student has completed 60% or less of the instruction. If the student has completed 60 percent or greater of the term, there will be NO refund.

Any notification of withdrawal or cancellation, and any requests for a refund must be made in writing (Refer to Student's Right to Cancel).

Any charges collected from a student which Horizon University had for the purpose of paying to any other public or private person, firm organization, or agency, such as for a bond, license, application, or examination fees, or any other similar fees or charge shall, where the student fails to enter the course or withdraws their form at any time prior to completion of the course will be refunded in full. Such charges are not subject to any refund if the institution has paid them prior to receipt of cancellation of a contract or enrollment.

A student whose entire tuition and fees are paid by a third party organization is not eligible for a refund.

The refund shall be calculated as follows:

The amount owed equals the daily charge for the program (total institutional charge, divided by the number of days or hours in the program), multiplied by the number of days student attended or was scheduled to attend, prior to withdrawal.

All amounts that the student has paid shall be subject to refund except for the enrollment agreement and the refund policy outlined here in the catalog specify amounts paid for which are non-refundable.

If Horizon University cancels a course or degree program, the student will receive a full refund of all charges. Refunds will be issued within 45 days of cancellation.
